

Nature Explore services

You have the project to leave for your next trip to the discovery of Tanzania?

- Get in touch with Nature Explore for a request for information or request a quote when your project is already accurate
- You will receive in a short time our advice in function:
 - of the composition of your group (family, couple, group of friends...)
 - of your airport of departure and return
 - of the duration of your trip
 - of the period
- We create your itinerary, your activities and your choice of accommodation in interactivity with you. You enjoy the precious time available in the reserves, a point very important for the quality of a safari.
- We send you also all the practical information for the preparation of your trip: at your disposal for any necessary advice.
- Upon your arrival in Tanzania, your safari guides you from the airport in his specially equipped safari jeep.
- You will travel accompanied by your guide, exclusively for you, during the whole safari, an important point for the quality of your safari. Thanks to its expertise, he fits the discoveries according to your personal wishes

(if for example you are passionate of photography, cat, birds, tropical vegetation or other...)

- Your days will be well occupied and you arrive early in the evening at your accommodation where you can relax and dream of all your discoveries and observations of the day.
- Your driver guide will bring you back at the end of safari to the airport for your return home or to fly for a stay in the archipelago of Zanzibar
- In the context of the discovery of Zanzibar, we organize your stay on measure, for example for a route, a visit to the town of Stonetown or simply a period of rest and relaxation well deserved after your safari. At the end of stay we what you to the airport for the return flight.

Safari Njema! (Good journey in swahili)

